Reconnect Days

As a remote-first agency, we are acutely aware of the importance of devoting time to actively “connect” with one another.

Our latest Reconnect Day in Dublin included a live sound bath with Barbara Brennan, followed by a sleep hygiene session with Anne Marie Boyhan from The Sleep Care Company.

To celebrate Brazilian Independence Day, two of our Brazilian employees introduced us to their culture, history, and food. All of which was excellent, especially the tapioca crepes!

Thank you for creating such a highly detailed and well organized design system that so easily lends itself to how devs tend to think in systems making for a confident build process.

A big thanks to Toki for jumping straight into the Discover Ireland moderated filter research project so quickly and for taking the pressure off us - the script is looking great and looking forward to the sessions next week!

Sharing a star with Jasmin. He's been a constant on the AP DM project since I started and his approach is great - no fuss, no complaining, just gets on with the work. It's an approach that's appreciated by his team and client. Kudos!
